Dear PASA

Billy Johnson has been a dealer for Wally Wings hang gliders for 7 years and has been an excellent representative of our products. He brought multiple new pilots into the hang gliding community and uses our entry level gliders as the product he sells to the new pilot. I have personally traveled to Billy's flying school multiple times during my promotional tours as owner of Wally's Wings and I can attest to his professionalism and his attention to safety.

Billy also is a good businessman and his attention to detail is impressive.

Should you need any further information in regard to Billy, don't hesitate to ask me.

Sincerely
